I vow to practice these

Ten Selfless Precepts

1. Responsibility
   To take responsibility for my life. Not to blame others for my own unhappiness, nor make excuses for my own mistakes.

2. Self-discipline
   To regard each moment as a precious opportunity for spiritual practice. Not to waste time in frivolous pursuits, nor overindulge in drugs, alcohol or escapist entertainments.

3. Harmlessness
   Not to injure or kill any being heedlessly or needlessly.

4. Stewardship
   Not to waste the resources upon which other beings depend.

5. Honesty
   Not to deceive myself or others by word or deed.

6. Integrity
   Not to take what does not belong to me.

7. Honor
   To regard my word as sacred; not to give it lightly but, once given, strive to honor it under all circumstances.

8. Sexual restraint
   To make of sex a sacrament; not to profane it in the pursuit of selfish ends.

9. Charity
   Not to be possessive of people or things, but to give unsparingly of my assets, both material and spiritual, for the alleviation of suffering.

10. Remembrance
    To recite these precepts once a day, renewing my vows and remembering this path which I have freely chosen.
The Five Fundamentals

I. Consciousness Alone is Absolutely Real.

The appearance of an objective world distinguishable from a subjective self is but the imaginary form in which Consciousness Perfectly Realizes Itself.

II. Ignorance of the Real is the root of suffering.

From ignorance is born the delusion of self; from the delusion of self, desire for the world; from desire for the world, attachment to worldly forms; from attachment to worldly forms, all forms of suffering.

III. The end of suffering comes by way of Gnosis, or the Sacrifice of ignorance through the Grace of a Perfect Realization that Consciousness Alone is Absolutely Real.

IV. The Way of Gnosis is the Way of Selflessness, cultivated on the basis of Love (boundless compassion) and Truth (profound insight).

It may be seen as unfolding in Seven Stages:

1. Awakening of faith
2. Investigation of teachings
3. Unification of self
4. Purification of mind
5. Illumination of heart
6. Exhaustion of will (Kenosis)
7. Sacrifice of ignorance (Gnosis)

It is governed by Four Principles:

1. Attention
2. Commitment
3. Detachment
4. Surrender

reflecting Seven Virtues:

1. Courage
2. Humility
3. Justice
4. Patience
5. Gratitude
6. Mercy
7. Joy

embodied in Four Disciplines:

1. Inquiry
2. Meditation
3. Morality
4. Devotion

V. The Way of Selflessness is the very way in which Consciousness Perfectly Realizes Itself.

Thus, the Way of Selflessness constitutes not only the Perfection of human life, but of the entire world as well.
I vow to practice these

Ten Selfless Precepts

1. Responsibility
   To take responsibility for my life. Not to blame others for my own unhappiness, nor make excuses for my own mistakes.

2. Self-discipline
   To regard each moment as a precious opportunity for spiritual practice. Not to waste time in frivolous pursuits, nor overindulge in drugs, alcohol or escapist entertainments.

3. Harmlessness
   Not to injure or kill any being heedlessly or needlessly.

4. Stewardship
   Not to waste the resources upon which other beings depend.

5. Honesty
   Not to deceive myself or others by word or deed.

6. Integrity
   Not to take what does not belong to me.

7. Honor
   To regard my word as sacred; not to give it lightly but, once given, strive to honor it under all circumstances.

8. Sexual restraint
   To make of sex a sacrament; not to profane it in the pursuit of selfish ends.

9. Charity
   Not to be possessive of people or things, but to give unsparingly of my assets, both material and spiritual, for the alleviation of suffering.

10. Remembrance
    To recite these precepts once a day, renewing my vows and remembering this path which I have freely chosen.

In addition, I vow to keep these

Five Monastic Precepts

for the duration of this retreat

1. To practice poverty by realizing that, in reality, nothing belongs to me.

2. To practice chastity by refraining from all external sexual behavior, and from indulging in internal sexual fantasies.

3. To practice strict obedience to all my precepts, as well as to the rules of this retreat center.

4. To maintain outer silence, except for speech relating to teachings or tasks; and to allow inner silence to permeate my heart and mind.

5. To strive for constancy in my practice, both day and night.
Letting go of all worldly sorrow and joy, I gladly undertake this practice for the benefit of all beings.
A Grace Before Meals

Remembering that sacrifice is the law of this world, we give thanks to these plants and animals who have sacrificed their own lives that we might live.

In return, we vow to sacrifice ourselves, surrendering our hearts to love, our minds to truth, and our bodies to service, so that all might awaken to the Real World and the Eternal Life of Consciousness Itself.