DREAM GROUPS

Dream workshops are now offered as a two-course sequence of INTRODUCTION TO YOUR DREAMS and WORKING WITH ARCHETYPES IN DREAMS. The first course will introduce methods of observing, recording, and interpreting dreams, basic Jungian archetypes in dreamwork, developing information about your inner life from dream content, and responding to dreams' messages. This course is a required prerequisite to the second course, which will be led by Joel. The second course will focus more on the transpersonal or spiritual content of dreams. The emphasis here will be on viewing dreams as portals to that sacred dimension of consciousness where insight and guidance may be received from archetypal figures and themes. It is designed specifically for spiritual seekers who are seriously committed to pursuing a path of transcendence.

Only the introductory course will be offered this winter term. At present the group is full, but we are starting a waiting list in case of cancellations and for spring term. If you are interested in being on the waiting list, please call Linda Danielson, 345-8155, or Diana Johanson, 344-7756, or leave a message at the Center, 687-0148. Linda and Diana will co-lead the winter group. About a month before the start of a dream workshop, people on the waiting list will be contacted in the order in which they signed up. At that time a $10.00 deposit will be requested to confirm your place in the group; the deposit is refundable until 10 days before the first meeting, after which it is not refundable.

CREATIVITY WORKSHOP

Please note on your calendar now that a creativity workshop, led by Dr. Amit Goswami, will be held the weekend of May 26-28 at Gull Haven Lodge in Florence. Call Amit at the Center for more information.

INTRODUCTION TO YOUR DREAMS

An Eight-week Workshop
Beginning Monday, October 9, 1989

Workshop Leader: Linda Danielson

Participants will learn and practice methods of observing, recording, and interpreting dreams. Jung's ideas about the life of the unconscious mind as the source of dreams and archetypal images in dreams will form the basis for discussion. The objective of dreamwork is to develop information about the inner life from dream content and to respond to dreams' messages.

For those interested in further work with dreams, Introduction to Your Dreams is a required prerequisite to Working with Archetypes in Dreams, another eight-week workshop, to be taught by Joel, offered winter term.

A donation of $25 is requested for the series. Space is limited, so please preregister by calling Linda Danielson at 345-8156 (dinner time is the best bet), or leave a message at the Center, 345-0102. A deposit of $10 received by October 4 will hold your space, but please call first. Checks may be sent to the Center for Sacred Sciences, 1430 Willamette, #164, Eugene, OR 97401.

DONATION REQUESTED: Non-members: $25 for the series
Members: $5

Place: 195 East 38th Avenue, Eugene, OR
Day and Time: 7:30 p.m., Monday evenings
Starting Date: October 9, 1989

* * * OCTOBER IS LIBRARY MONTH * * *

at the Center for Sacred Sciences

Your Center's library has over 600 books, 50 audio tapes, and 25 videos--serving you Wednesdays, 10:30-5:30 p.m., and Sundays after meditation.

BOOK DRIVE '88 WAS A SUCCESS!

From the sales of used books and cash donations the Center purchased 44 new books. Last year's themes were "Women's Spirituality" and "Mythology." Some of the new titles are:

1. The Dialogue - St. Catherine of Siena
2. I Send a Voice - Evelyn Eaton
3. Diving Deep and Surfacing - Carol Christ
4. Dreams of a Woman - Sheila Moon
5. Native Mesoamerican Spirituality - _____
6. Myths and Symbols in Indian Art - Heinrich Zimmer
7. Sufi Women - Dr. Nurbakhsh

BOOK DRIVE '89 BEGINS!

We are now collecting books on any subject to be sold to raise money for new book purchases. Fall is a great time to sort out your bookshelves and get rid of those books you no longer use (call if you need pick-up arrangements). This year's themes are Jewish Mysticism and Taoism. If you would like to suggest a title or video, there is a suggestion box in the library. The library also always welcomes bookends, blank audio tapes, blank video tapes, cash donations, volunteers to help out, and books that would be appropriate for our collection.
